

NOTICE

The Oran R-3 School District has completed candidate filing for the district's Board of Directors. The district will not hold a school board election on April 3, 2018, because the number of candidates filing was equal to the number of open positions. The following candidates will be sworn into office at the School Board's reorganization meeting in April: Carla Graviett and Patrick Young.